PROGRAM PARTICIPATION CONSENT FORM

I, _____, parent of minor child(ren)
_____, hereby consent for myself and my child(ren) to participate in Kids' Turn, a program conducted at the designated site. The purpose of the program is to offer education and support to help children and parents in the process of family reorganization following separation or divorce.

I agree to participate and give my consent for my child(ren) to participate in the six week Kids' Turn group. I understand that, within the bounds set by law, all information, communications, observations and opinions derived from this program shall be considered private and confidential between myself and the Kids' Turn group. I understand, too, that the program may be described in written publications but that no information will be provided that could identify any individual participants in the program.

I agree that neither myself nor anyone representing me shall call on any staff persons involved in this program during this program or at any other time to provide either written or oral testimony at a deposition or in court on any issue related to my family nor shall I subpoena any records from Kids' Turn for such purposes. I waive any right that I may have to call such person or subpoena such record in this or any action which is or may be filed.

I give my consent for Kids' Turn to use artwork, images or quotations made by my child in Kids' Turn's brochures, literature or other public relations activities. My child will not be identified by full name.

I understand further that the facility used for the workshop is in no way responsible or liable for any action associated with the Kids' Turn program.

I have signed below that I have read, understand, and agree to the above:
